

Privacy and Confidentiality

Statement

At Mirrabrook we recognise and respect the importance of privacy and confidentiality as an individual right and a basis for building partnerships. Our service requires personal information from families to provide appropriate and responsive care. This policy has been developed to comply with the Australian Privacy Principles (APPs) (2014) and pursues the highest standard in the protection and preservation of privacy and confidentiality.

At Mirrabrook we will:

- maintain private and confidential files for educators and staff, children and their families. We will develop systems for the appropriate use, storage and disposal of records.
- ensure the information in these files is used only for the education and care of the child enrolled in the service, and only shared with relevant or authorised people as defined within authorisations of the Education and Care Services National Regulations.

STRATEGIES

At Mirrabrook we aim to meet these goals through the adoption of this specific Privacy and Confidentiality policy and our Privacy Collection statement which will guide our practices in this area.

The Approved Provider will:

Collection of Information

- Ensure that each family, staff, volunteers and student and committee member is provided with a privacy collection statement upon enrolment, that includes details about how they can access their personal information, have this corrected as needed, make a complaint about a breach of privacy, if one occurs.
- Ensure each staff member, committee members, volunteers and student information is correct in personnel and other files. This includes information on qualifications, WWCC, criminal history checks, staff entitlements, contact and emergency information, health and immunisation information, and any relevant medical and legal information. This would include any other relevant information collected by the service.
- Ensure that information collected from families, educators, committee members and the community is maintained in a private and confidential manner at all times.
- Ensure that such information is not divulged or communicated (directly or indirectly) to another person other than the ways outlined as appropriate in the Education and Care Services National, which says information can be communicated:
  - To the extent necessary for the education, care or medical treatment of the child;
  - To the parent of the child to whom the information relates (except for information in staff records);
  - To the regulatory authority or an authorised officer;
  - As authorised, permitted or required to be given by or under any act or law; and
  - With written consent of the person who provided the information.

- Ensure families are informed upon enrolment how images/photographs of their children will be used on the Internet and/or publications and gain written approval.
- Provide families with information on the Complaints and Feedback procedure if any privacy or confidentiality procedure has been breached. Individuals can make a complaint to the Approved Provider if they believe there has been a breach of their privacy in relation to the Privacy principles. The breach will be assessed by the Approved Provider within 14 days. Where the information collected is incorrect, the information will be corrected. Where a serious breach of privacy is found, appropriate actions will be negotiated between the Approved Provider and the individual to resolve the situation, in line with the Complaints and Feedback procedure.
- Will ensure information provided by families, staff and committee members is only used for the purpose it was collected for.
